DALLAS.

Preliminary Step in Preparing for the Confederate Reunion at the Fort in August.

The Coldwaterites to Form a Separate Political Party and Put Out Their Own Candidates.

Special.

DALLAS, TEX., May 12.—Burglars attempted to enter the house of Mr. Reinhardt on Ervay street last night. They cut out a pane of glass but were frightened away before they got in the house. It is believed that Dallas has lately received several traveling burglars in her midst and the police have spotted them.

A move will be made by the commissioners' court to hire twenty-five short-term convicts from the state. If the county hires the convicts it will place them on the public road. It has twenty or thirty convicts at work in turn-piking certain roads and with the twenty-five penitentiary convicts the court hopes to have good roads. The policy of the commissioners' court is to turn-pike every road in the county.

The proposed building of a new colored church in a thickly settled portion of the city has so aroused the people that they will apply for an injunction against the building.

The prohibitionists met to-day, transacted but little business and adjourned. Judging from the speeches made, the conclusion cannot be avoided that the temperance folks intend to form a distinct and separate body and place their candidates in the field at the next election. They openly declare this to be their determination. Those members who have deprecated the mixture of politics with the holy work have been snubbed and given back seats. The orators who received the best attention were those who wanted "war to the knife and the knife to the hilt."

One of the speakers last night said the good men and women of the movement hoped and believed the temperance cause would triumph in Tarrant county. He then facetiously remarked that, if such was the case, even the editor of the Times could be converted. All the delegates left this evening for their several homes. They are much pleased with their meeting and the reception and entertainment by the Dallas people.

The temperance move in Fort Worth is the all-absorbing talk here.

On Friday evening the second annual entertainment of the traveling Men's union will be given at the Merchants' exchange. There will be a supper and ball.

The directors of the Texas Trunk railway met to-day but adjourned till to-morrow without transacting any business.

P. F. Bill, the defaulting postmaster at Sunset, has had his bail reduced to $1000, which he gave.

Bishop Gallagher of the Catholic church leaves this evening for Sherman where he will administer the rites of confirmation on Ascension day.

Mr. John C. Richardson of Fort Worth, an old Missouri Confederate soldier, was in the city to-day, conferring with his old comrades-in-arms in regard to the reunion at Fort Worth in August.

Mr. Harvey, the contractor, will go to work to-morrow in extending the boardwalk pavement on Elm street. He has the contract for paving both Main and Elm streets.

PALESTINE.

Special.

PALESTINE, TEX., May 12.—The jury yesterday brought in a verdict of not guilty in the case of Mrs. Rylander, charged with assault to murder one Marshman last spring. Marshman was tried last fall, was fined heavily, but was reprimanded by the governor.

The parties were neighbors and, getting in a family squabble, Marshman and the woman exchanged several shots with each other, the empty air and timbers of the houses only being damaged.

PILOT POINT.

Grocerymen Sold Out by the Constable.

PILOT POINT, TEX., May 12.—The stock of groceries of Wade & Hill was sold to-day by Constable Glascock for $385 to J. W. Irwin, a South Jefferson street grocer.

The good work goes on. Roadmaster C. H. Davis is grading the streets in the southwest portion of our city. James Pichie, clerk of Newberry county, returned last evening from a month's visit to his old home in Tennessee.

Brother Jones of the Post took in Dallas and the prohibition convention yesterday. He reports about 125 people out to hear Hon. E. L. Dohoney last night. Truly, Dallas is not much prohibition.

A Deadly Game at Cards.

SAVANNAH, GA., May 12.—At Waltherville, a small hamlet thirty-seven miles from this city, on Monday, in a quarrel over a game at cards between negro mill and turpentine hands, five blacks were killed outright and four or five others dangerously wounded.

Water-Coolers

And bird cages at W. P. Lewis & Bros.

Held for Identification.

BLOOMINGTON, IND., May 12.—The preliminary examination of Wright, the alleged express robber who was to be lynched to-day if identified as the guilty man, has been postponed until Friday. Webster, the baggage master, telegraphed from New Albany that he is unable to make the trip now to see if he can identify the prisoner. No violence will be attempted until Webster has a chance to identify him.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

An Ex-Bank President Cuts His Throat from Ear to Ear.

AUGUSTA, GA., May 12.—William L. Roberts, president of the defunct Bank of Augusta, for whom a requisition was made by Gov. Hill of New York and is now pending in the courts, cut his throat with a razor from ear to ear this morning. While the wounds are gaping and ugly, the doctor says they will not be fatal, as the jugular vein and carotid arteries are not severed. The recent complications have so affected Mr. Roberts as to render him partially insane.

The grand jury now in session found a true bill against him for perjury as president of the Bank of Augusta. He was required to furnish a bond for his appearance in the sum of $10,000. It is also reported that the grand jury has found a true bill against H. Walton, cashier of the Bank of Augusta, for perjury. Bail is required in Walton's case in the sum of $12,000.

POLYGAMISTS CORRALED.

Mormons in Idaho Resist Arrest—Troops Hastening to the Scene.

SALT LAKE, UTAH, May 12.—A letter from Oxford, Idaho, says: "The greatest excitement prevails at Bear Lake. On the 5th inst. warrants were placed in the hands of three deputy marshals for the arrest of eight polygamists at and around Paris. Nothing was heard of the matter here till this morning, when a telegram announcing the fact that the polygamists were all corraled in the meeting-house at Paris under the protection of an armed guard of brethren on the outside was received. The deputy marshals who attempted to make the arrests were marched out of Paris by an armed mob, who threatened that they would kill anyone who attempted to serve the warrants. Marshal Fred Dubois upon the receipt of this news immediately telegraphed Superintendent Ryleckendorfer at Pocatello and chartered a special train to convey himself and a posse to Montpelier, from which point they will reach Paris about 5 p. m. to-day, Sunday.

Free Concert.

Mrs. C. D. Brown keeps a line of the very best and newest styles of dress-goods, millinery, trappings and undecorated. Her assortment now being full and complete, ladies are invited to come and see for themselves. Prices as low and quality as good as any house west of St. Louis.

PARIS.

Middleton Arrested for the Murder of Sheriff Black.

PARIS, TEX., May 12.—A dispatch received here to-day from Detective Duncan states that John Middleton, charged with the killing of Sheriff Black, has been arrested.

The murder trial of George Swink was put off until the September term of the court.

The case against Jane Gardner was put off by the defense until next term.

Col J. T. Campbell's illness is causing his friends considerable anxiety.

Mr. J. A. Martin and Mr. John A. Gore have been elected members of the school board.

The school board met yesterday and re-elected Prof. J. C. Brooks superintendent of the public schools, at a salary of $200 per month.

How to Save Money.

And we might also say, time and pain as well, in our advice to good housekeepers and ladies generally. The great necessity existing always to have a perfectly safe remedy convenient for the relief and prompt cure of the ailments peculiar to women—functional irregularity, constant pains and all the symptoms attendant upon uterine disorders—induces us to recommend strongly and unqualifiedly Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription"—"woman's best friend." It will save money.

Forced Into a Strike.

EAU CLAIRE, WIS., May 12.—Fifty men who were laying pipes for the water-works this morning were overpowered by a crowd of 300 laborers and forced to quit work.

A crowd of 300 marched to the Pioneer and also to the Sherman saw mills and forced them to shut down. Some violence was used. All the other saw mills shut down before the strikers got there except the Eau Claire Lumber company, whose mills still run. The demand of the water-works men is $1.50 per day. The saw-mill workmen made no demand but were forced by the strikers to quit work.

Smoking Cigarettes by Machinery.

One of the most curious exhibitions of the kind ever brought to Fort Worth is a skillful piece of mechanism. It is a dandy dressed monkey which lifts a lighted cigarette to its mouth, and with deliberate languor puts the smoke from between its lips and occasionally through its nostrils. The lips open and shut and the eyelids droop in the most ludicrously affected way as it elevates a pair of gold glasses in an elegant fashion. It is shown by Mr. C. D. Wingfield, the enterprising agent for the brand of the Opera Puff cigarettes, which are becoming as familiar in our mouths as household words.

ALBANY.

A Dozen Indictments Found by the Grand Jury—Wool Coming in, Special.

ALBANY, TEX., May 9.—District court adjourned Wednesday, three days before the end of the term. The grand jury was only in session three days, finding one indictment for felony and eleven for misdemeanors. Very few visiting attorneys were in attendance this session.

County court has also been in session during the week, and five out of the twelve indictments found by the grand jury have already been tried, resulting in three convictions out of the five.

A heavy rain fell Thursday night and a light norther blew during the greater portion of the day Friday. The hotel and a number of business houses lighted fires and the indications denoted that "winter still lingered in the lap of spring."

Wool is beginning to arrive, and, notwithstanding the fact that large numbers of sheep died, there will be a heavy shipment during the season.

Judge T. B. Wheeler departed for his home at Cisco Thursday morning. The judge is an excellent executive officer, and is winning golden opinions from our citizens from the rapid manner in which he disposes of business.

A great number of strangers can be seen on our roads this spring, prospecting for ranch and business locations. We believe that the number of our inhabitants is increasing in a ratio equal to that of any town in this section of the state.

Our commissioners' court will convene Monday, and some very important business will come before the court. New roads have been recently located under previous orders and land owners have been notified to appear and present their claims for damages.

Albany is one of the healthiest and pleasantest places in the summer season to be found in the state for pleasure-seekers, and, since Elm park has been improved, we can see no reason why people living in South and Southeastern Texas could not enjoy themselves to their heart's content, and at the same time reap all the benefits to be found elsewhere. The nights especially are delightful. No sultry, hot air leaves a feeling of stupor and languor; no mosquitoes hum songs in your ear while their bills are lacerating your flesh, but, in lieu thereof, a cool, refreshing breeze imparts vigor and life to the sleeper, and he awakens in the morning refreshed in body and mind.

Farmers are jubilant over the prospects of a large wheat crop and, if we can judge from appearances, there will be one of the largest yields ever known in this section.
